

The Committee on House Administration has released a new website for the 112th Congress, and in keeping with our mission to provide excellent service to Member Offices, the Committee is seeking input on the new website.

If you have any comments or suggestions on how we can improve the website to better serve your needs, please contact mcalvo@mail.house.gov .